FOURTH OF JULY PREPARATION BEGUN

The local committee that can always be relied upon for looking after the preliminaries of the Fourth of July program met last night in the office of Harry Grier, last year's chairman, who by acclamation was asked to serve once more this year. The attendance was not as large as expected owing to counter attractions, but those attending began business by organizing through the election of C. F. Wittenberg, treasurer, and Miss Alice Dumont, secretary. H. D. King acted as secretary of the meeting. The chairman was empowered to appoint the committee and adjournment was taken to Tuesday night at the same place. At the next meeting it will be determined as to the nature of the celebration and the extent of the observance of the holiday.

MRS. STEWART DIES ON THE WAY HOME

Mrs. Charles Stewart, mother of Senator J. Wesley Stewart, who has been confined to bed for the past six months in San Francisco, died yesterday morning at Gardnerville. The deceased was being removed to her old home in Bridgeport, Mono county, California, where she had requested being taken that she might end her days in old familiar surroundings where she had grown up as a girl and enjoyed the love and esteem of every one in the community. The patient knew her end was near, but viewed the approach with fortitude as she nerved herself for the final journey. The trip had been arranged for an ambulance to meet the party in charge of Senator Stewart at Gardnerville and take the lady to her old home in Bridgeport, but the experience was too much for the overtaxed strength of Mrs. Stewart, who sank steadily as she neared her destination.

Mrs. Stewart was born in Sulphur Springs, Esmeralda county and removed to Bridgeport when still a child. She was a most lovable woman with most hospitable instincts and never enjoyed herself more than when she was engaged in some charitable work. It is thought the funeral will take place tomorrow at Bridgeport, but no positive information has been received here. The deceased lady is survived by her husband, Charles Stewart, of Bridgeport, her son, Senator J. Wesley Stewart, Mrs. Judge Parker and Mrs. Barriessa, of Bridgeport.

Mrs. Odesa Davenport was placed in charge of publicity work to assist in educating women to the necessity for supporting the government in the crisis. It and been rewarded with notable gains in terrain and the capture of more than 5000 prisoners and numerous guns of various calibre. In addition they inflicted heavy casualties on the Germans.

SWEEPING VICTORY

Over a front of more than nine miles, extending from the region of Ypres southward nearly to Arras, the British started their drive Thursday morning and at nightfall had everywhere advanced their line, capturing villages and numerous points of vantage, among the latter the Mesines-Wyschaete ridge which commands the surrounding plains for miles and which for two and a half years has been a troublesome salient.

The villages of Mesines and Wyschaete fell into the hands of the British during the attack and the British even penetrated on eastward from Wyschaete and occupied the village of Oestaverne and trenches east of the village on a front of more than five miles.

Probably never in history was an attack launched with greater preparation. For days the Wytschaete salient has been the objective of the guns, which had hurled tons of steel upon it. When the time for the attack came the British loosed mines containing 1,000,000 pounds of high explosives in front of the German positions, the detonations being heard 130 miles away in England.

With consternation reigning among the Germans and under a curtain of fire, English, Irish, New Zealand and Australian infantry with "tanks" to aid them, started across the open. The Germans offered only slight resistance and everywhere were beaten off even late in the afternoon when they had somewhat regained their composure and attempted a counter attack near the southern end of the line which was broken up by the British artillery fire.

FOR THE ENGINEER CORPS

Jack Smith, the recruiting officer at Tonopah, was a busy man this morning, looking after the dispatch of four stalwart recruits from Tonopah, whom he was speeding on their way. The young men were Lawrence N. Kerr, Frederick Hayes, Geo. Goswert and Earl W. Large. They are all going into the engineer corps.

was also resolved to make the organization permanent to continue during the war. The next meeting will be held at the Elks lodge rooms on the afternoon of June 18.

BUTLER THEATER

Dainty Anita Stewart will be seen tonight in "The Girl Philippa," the special eight-reel Vitaphone production which has broken all theater records in the east. It has been a sensation wherever it has been shown. "The Girl Philippa," from the pen of America's greatest novelist, Robert W. Chambers, is a tale of two hearts told in terms of love, war, of beauty and adventure. Radiating the spirit of joy and naturalness, imbuing all her portrayals with that subtle quality of "soul," Anita Stewart's characterization of "The Girl Philippa" reaches the highest point of her dramatic achievements. She has beauty, she has poise, she has magnetism. She is dainty in manner, poised in action, and finished in performance. Her wide range and control of delicate emotions, her ability to register her feelings and thoughts so as to convey them across the screen, her rare grace of body and her finely chiseled features not only make her the ideal Philippa, but America's most popular heroine. "The Girl Philippa" is as fragrant as the wild rose. Its tempo that of a galling gun. Its story plays the music of the heart. It's a picture that will hold you and please you. Music written especially for the picture.

Tomorrow: "One of Many," with the emotional star Frances Nelson, in a play that will appeal to women. A mighty moral pantomime. Also a two-reel comedy. Monday, "The Crisis."

LIBERTY THEATER

Today: Special program for today. May Ward in "A Daughter of War." With the nation stirred to greater patriotic ardor than at any time since Dewey captured Manila Bay, and the government facing one of the great crises of American history, this five-reel feature has been released. No more opportune time could be selected for showing this big feature, which is bound to the upbuilding of the forces of the United States, and especially the Red Cross. Women are enlisting for all kinds of service, and will eventually be a great factor in making peace. Men, do your part. Enlist, buy a Liberty Bond, or assist in any manner possible in order to protect your loved ones, and in your spare moments see this picture "A Daughter of War," which is bubbling over with patriotism, and is a tribute to the women. Never since the time that real motion pictures came into existence has there been such an outburst of patriotism and never has there been such a demand from the general public for patriotic photoplays. Now that flags fly from almost every building; that khaki clad soldiers are in almost every crowd, and congress is deliberating over questions of great importance, the public demands patriotic entertainment, and the Liberty has booked this feature telling a story of 1776, which we know will please every one.

Tomorrow: Frank Keenan and Thelma Salter in "The Crab."

BLUEJACKET HERE TO ENLIST MEN

The sight of a clean cut young man in all the attractiveness of a bluejacket uniform drew quite a crowd around R. J. Coburn, gunnery mate, when he arrived this morning from San Francisco. The gallant sailor lad has come to Tonopah in behalf of the recruiting service and will spend a few days here answering all inquiries concerning life on the ocean deep.

Mate Coburn says the great need at present is for apprentice seamen and firemen of the third class, hos-

THE CRISIS COMES TO BUTLER MONDAY

When "The Crisis" comes to the Butler theater on Monday, veterans who fought on either side, can sit together for the first time in local stage history and see each cause fairly and impartially presented, each in all its strength and weakness. Hitherto in plays dealing with the strife of the north and the south there has been a prejudice more or less violent in one direction or the other. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at the one extreme, was of the north, "The Birth of a Nation" was of the south, though conceived with a broader and more liberal spirit. Winston Churchill, in writing "The Crisis" took a large minded view of the events leading up to and culminating in the struggle of '61-'65. In two characters, life-long friends and now men in the iron age of life, he embodied the opposite spirits of the conflict. He brought these characters together on the debatable ground of old St. Louis, and evolved the most powerful novel yet written on a purely American theme. His northern hero and his southern heroine, intensely interesting in themselves, are yet mere puppets in the hands of the giant forces that tore a nation in two, and that are embodied in Colonel Carvel and Judge Whipple.

Abraham Lincoln, an essential character in the romance of "The Crisis," is introduced frequently throughout the story, and is a central figure in the plot. The picture will be shown on Monday, one day only, one matinee and two night shows.—Adv.

EXTENSION OF TIME GRANTED FOR THE ARMY REGISTRATION

Sheriff Thomas has received notice that a few days more will be granted for receiving registrations of those who were prevented from appital apprentices and landmen and yeomen. The latter is the designation of those who look after the clerical work aboard ship and demands a knowledge of bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting. Altogether aboard ship the crews represent some 20 trades, all of which are well paid, the wages ranging from $17.50 to $100 a month, with everything found and plenty of opportunities for adding to the regular wage. Applicants must be between 18 and 25 years of age, but boys of 17 may be received with their parents consent. The officers will also look after the districts tributary to Round Mountain and Manhattan whose postmasters will give all information. Any one desiring to meet Mate Coburn should apply to the postmaster at Tonopah.
